
My Grandmother\'s Button Tin

Posted by birdmom - 2008/04/23 08:42

Hi - I have my grandmother's button tin--full of buttons from 1910 to 1970 (plus a few I have added over the last 30 years of so). I have thought that I would organize them and collect more, but have never "got around to it," so am thinking maybe someone else would like them? If anyone is interested, I could take some pix to email out. Please let me know - thanks!

Hi,
I would be interested in your buttons.

Best wishes

Hi - I've been watching collections go on e-bay. Based on winning prices, and comparing what I have to pictures I have seen there, I am hoping to get around $70 for this collection - make me an offer! :) I can be reached at carskadden@gmail.com
